Comprising two interconnecting chalets and with 1,000m² of internal floorspace, Chalet Chouqui is a spectacular private property. Completed in 2015, Verbier rarely gains a property of this magnitude - with its uninterrupted views,

Chalet Chouqui really can claim to be unrivalled in its position, size and style. Chouqui has uninterrupted views of the Mont Blanc Massif, arguably the largest private indoor pool in the whole resort, plus a cinema room, games room, bar, lounge and wine cellar. The Chalet also boasts a large terrace with afresco dining for 20, plus sofas and sun loungers, a sunken outdoor hot tub and vast fire pit.

Designed and furnished by a leading London interiors specialist, the two sitting rooms and nine bedrooms are decorated with herringbone tweeds, faux fur throws and feature reclaimed wood and custom-made English furniture. There is state-of-the-art John Cullen lighting and a Sonos music system throughout as well as a bar with an impressive adjoining wine cellar.
