Chalet Rock is hidden away in a quiet corner of Verbier, a three-minute chauffeured drive away from the ski lifts. Uninterrupted views towards the Mont Blanc massif can be enjoyed from the outdoor hot tub or one of the chalet's expansive terraces.

Chalet Rock has been lovingly designed throughout in a modern contemporary style. Thanks to its state-of-the-art wood pellet and solar-powered heating and ventilation systems, the chalet is not only beautifully warm and cosy, but environmentally-friendly too, standing at 350sq.m.

Spread over three floors, Chalet Rock has five bedrooms, all with en suite bathrooms. The master bedroom is gorgeous, with spectacular views and a spacious modern bathroom, finished in stylish polished concrete. The chalet's double-height living room is full of light and its floor-to-ceiling panoramic French windows open onto a large south-facing balcony with sun loungers and giant bean-bags.

For those who like their seclusion, Chalet Rock is the perfect mountain bolt-hole..

"From the moment we stepped through the front door of the wonderful Chalet Rock, our chalet team look after us like royalty. They were extremely professional, yet down-to-earth and pitched their services in a very friendly, yet unobtrusive manner. We will definitely be back!"
